Dear Sponsors and Supporters,

August 2016

This may be the most exciting newsletter we have ever had the privilege of writing to you! Patrick, Headmaster of the Primary School titled his July report, 'The Fruits of Sponsorship.' He writes:

"Me, Patrick, the head teacher of Primary School, I am very pleased to encourage you to continue with your great heart for supporting our children. It is true that your support now has changed many families from bad condition to better.

The following is the story about three students who once were sponsored in Primary School and then Hebron Secondary School. Now these students are employed and are working somewhere successfully. One of them is a mechanic, he is working in a certain garage as a supervisor, the second is a policewoman and the third is the trainee teacher. Let me explain in short.

James Samwel 2003

The first one who is now mechanic, this is James Samwel. He finished class seven in Primary School. He didn't want to go on with Secondary School. Instead he asked his father to be sent to trade school in order to fulfill his dream of becoming a mechanic. His father agreed with him and he sent him to Vocational School in Tabora Region, more than 400 miles from home. He did well with studies and later was employed in a certain garage. He is now in charge/supervisor in that garage.

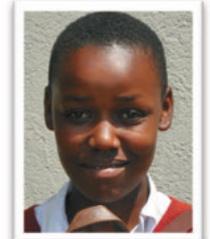

Romana Apael 2003

The second is a Policewoman. This is Romana Apael. She got sponsorship since Kindergarten. She did well in Primary Education and Secondary Education. After completing Form Four she was selected to join Police College in Kilimanjaro region. She performed well and now she is a Policewoman in a certain Police station. Can you imagine Romana from poor family can change her family?

Violet Joel 2003

The last one is Violet Joel. After finishing Class Seven, she got Secondary Education in Hebron Secondary School. Although she didn't pass well enough to go further with Form Five, she joined the College, which offers Certificate and Diploma in Childhood Education. She is there taking both Certificate and Diploma. May be one day Violet will be a teacher in Our School.

Violet Joel 2014

Sponsors, this is just the beginning of the journey. Many students as well as their families are going to benefit from the sponsorship. I am very eager to write again and again about the development obtained from your sponsorship. Once I get chance I will write more." ~ Yours, Obedient Patrick

We thank the sponsors of every single child for supporting them and for taking another child when your child continues the journey by using the skills they learned from the education you have made possible. As Patrick suggested, here are 'the fruits of your sponsorship.'

One of our supporters put it so nicely, "The students of Sakila are so blessed to have teachers to help them find the special skill and talent that God formed in each of them. Thank you for all you do to make that happen."

Yours in faith and hope,

Gene & Perraine Anderson
